DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities. Appropriate correction is required.

From page 2 through page 33, the Applicant has used the term "penetrated" or some variant thereof which when referring to material items generally means to force through or pierce, although it is unclear as to how bolts, screws, threads, washers, fastening members, etc. are penetrated, or what elements are performing the penetrations on said bolts, screws, threads, washers, fastening members, etc. This word should be --inserted-- or some variant in order to be grammatically and idiomatically correct.

Starting on page 28 and continuing through page 35, the Applicant has used the word "opposite" or some variant thereof. As per the claim objection applied in the prior Office action, it appears that the Applicant has used "opposite" when the correct terminology to make the language understandable is --opposing-- or --adjacent--. Although in a few instances opposite appears to be appropriate, the Examiner requests that the Applicant review the specification accordingly to make sure the Applicant's intent is clearly stated and is not confusing.

Art Unit: 2859

In the abstract, line 4: Is "positions signals" correct?

On page 2, in the last line: It appears that "The coupling unit is led out" is grammatically incorrect. If correct, then what does this mean?

On page 35, in line 9: "the end face of the knock pin 61 is made the same side" appears to be grammatically incorrect.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-12 are allowable.
4. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).

Art Unit: 2859
